Editor: I wish to comment on a news column entitled,

"McNamara Pledge: We Will Stay in Viet Nam." Because of the double-talk, controlled-news releases, and two-faced pledges of the Democratic administration now in power, we can only assume that we are being prepared for the give-away of South Viet Nam to communism.

According to a three-column article in your paper, the secret police defector from Russia and Poland stated that there are over 150 Russian agents in our State Department and C.I.A. This is very plausible and understandable when one looks at all the international fiascos in which we have been involved.

I hope to God President Johnson has the courage to clean them out and put pro-American citizens in all branches of our government. In this way we can develop a consistent foreign policy not only for Viet Nam but for all of our commitments.
